A festival website that sells tickets through Ticketmelon, made for fans in the Philippines.

PROPOSAL · OCTOBER 2026

TODAY

No story

A link in your bio goes straight to a ticket page. No lineup, venue or vibe to convince people who aren't sure yet.

Unanswered questions

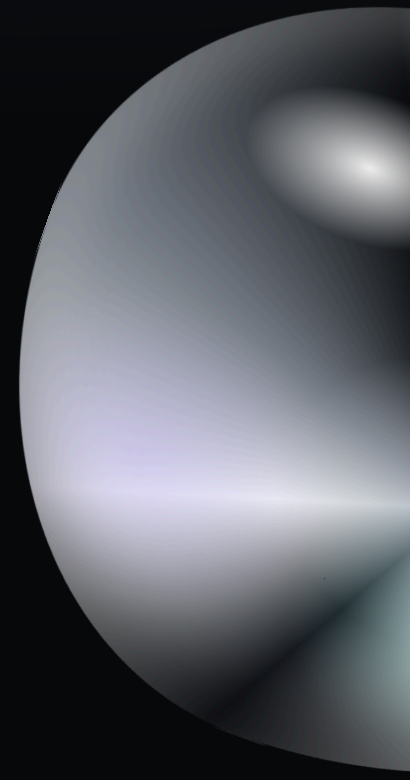

"How do I get there? Is there an age limit? Can I get a refund?" Unanswered questions mean lost sales and a full DM inbox.

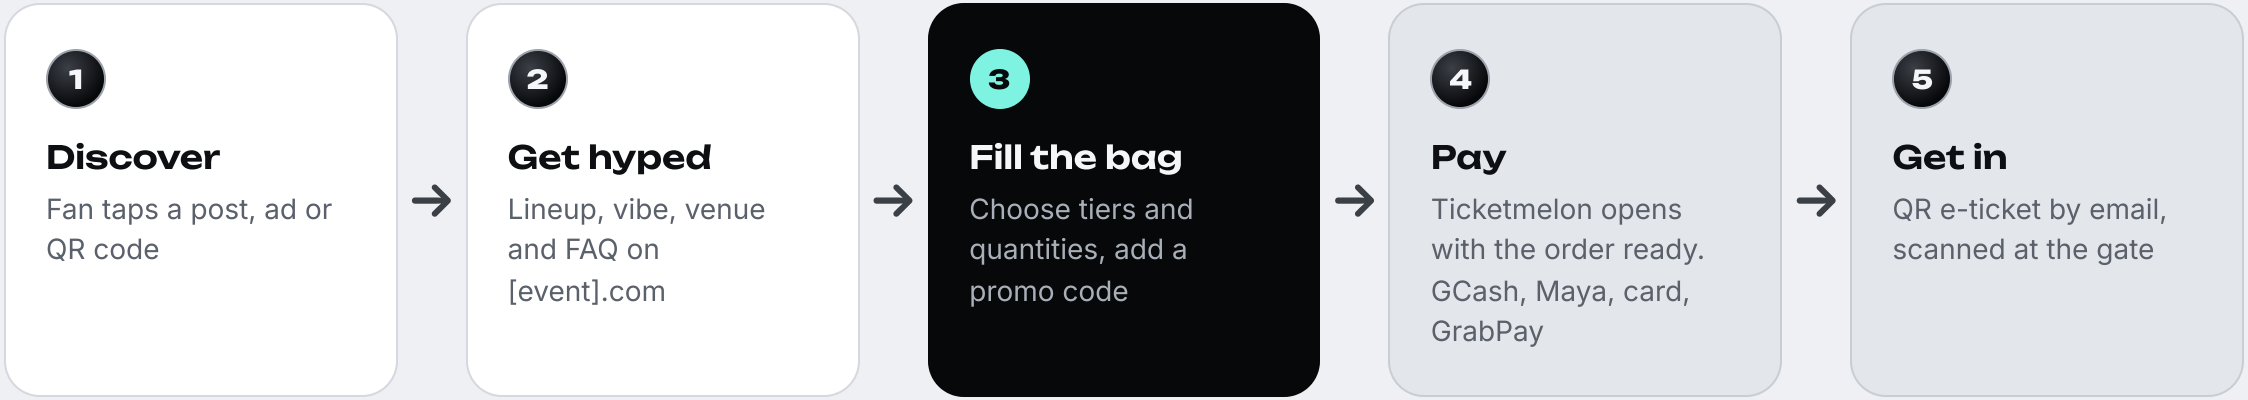

No idea what worked

You can't tell which posts, creators or ads sold tickets, so ad money is a guess.

And you don't own any of it: no website, no search traffic, no fan list.

Every post, ad, poster and QR code points to [event].com. The site sells the experience and fans choose their tickets there. Ticketmelon handles payment, e-tickets and check-in, which it already does well.

Each step is tracked, from first visit to add to bag to checkout started, so you can see what drives sales.

PROOF IT WORKS

- A "Bag" on their own site, with prices shown for every phase
- Checkout says "You'll be redirected to ticketmelon.com"
- Ticketmelon opens with the order already filled in, using a link feature that works on every Ticketmelon event
- Promo codes and tracking tags go along to checkout

We tested this on 19 Oct 2026. In week 1 we confirm it with your Ticketmelon account manager. If it's ever unavailable, tickets link to the matching Ticketmelon page and still work.

top festival sites we studied already hand off to Ticketmelon: Wonderfruit (Thailand) and DWP (Jakarta).

Coachella · Tomorrowland · Glastonbury · Primavera Sound · Wonderfruit · DWP · Web Summit · Stripe Sessions · The Weeknd tour · OFFF

01

Tickets always one tap away

A Tickets button in the header, plus a sticky buy bar on mobile.

02

Prices on the site

"From ₱x" on every card, with fees explained before checkout.

03

Honest urgency

Show every price phase: sold-out phases, the current price, the next price.

04

One switch

Pre-sale, on sale or sold out changes every button on the site at once.

05

Lineup as poster

Big type for headliners, filters by day.

06

Barkada deals

Group packs and bundles, shown next to VIP to anchor value.

07

Fast on 4G

Show an image first and load video after. Maps load only when tapped.

08

Gap in PH

Major Philippine festival sites are offline or parked, so a polished site stands out.

PAGE	JOB
Home	The pitch: hero video, lineup, tickets, venue
Tickets	Tiers, phases, bag, fees and refund policy explained
Lineup	Artist pages with music, shareable on socials
Schedule	Set times by day and stage
Info	Getting there, where to stay, rules, accessibility
FAQ	Searchable; cuts DMs
Past editions	Aftermovies and galleries that build trust

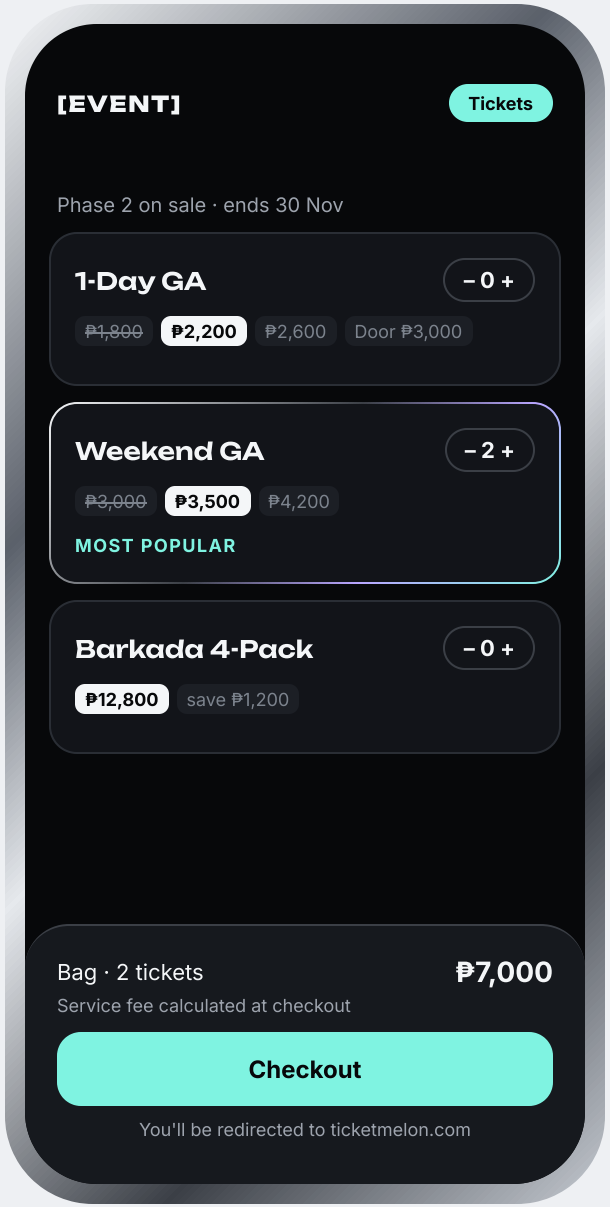

Built to be reused

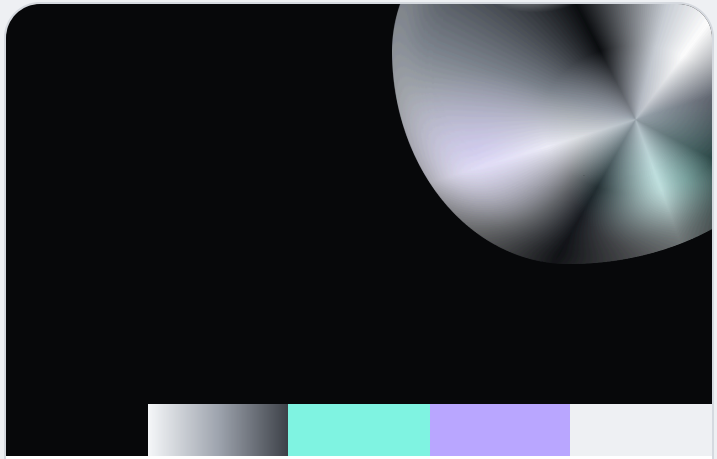

One platform for all of Chrome's events. Each year's edition gets a fresh look, and last year's moves to the archive automatically.

Your team edits it

Change prices, sold-out badges, lineup and FAQ from a simple editor, with no developer. Schedule a lineup drop to go live at exactly 12:00 PM.

- Tier cards show every price phase
- +/– quantity and a bag that slides up from the bottom
- Fees and redirect explained before payment
- Same-tab checkout, so it works inside the Instagram, TikTok and Facebook apps
- Sold out? The button changes to "Join waitlist"

A · Liquid Chrome

Y2K liquid metal, polished silver with a holographic sheen. Chrome logo lockup, holo-foil ticket cards.

BEST FOR POP-ELECTRONIC

B · Ancestral Circuit

Metal as craft: hammered brass and bronze, gong-ring soundwaves, woven patterns by a Filipino artist.

BEST FOR WORLD / FOLK-ELECTRONIC

C · Signal Steel

Cold and minimal: brushed steel, scan lines, notched ticket-stub cards and mono data labels.

BEST FOR TECHNO / HOUSE / EDM

DATA YOU OWN

Every step tracked

Visit → lineup → add to bag → checkout, in Google Analytics, Meta and TikTok. Your ads optimise toward real buyers.

Sales by channel

A promo code per creator, ad or partner goes automatically to Ticketmelon. Sales reports show exactly who sold what.

Your own fans

Waitlist and newsletter sign-ups, compliant with the Data Privacy Act. Announce the next lineup to people who already want in.

Service fee (PH)	≈ 4% + ₱20/ticket over ₱300
Payment processing	≈ 3% (cards, e-wallets)
Who pays	Buyer by default; you can absorb fees
Setup / monthly fee	None
Payouts	Bank transfer, schedule confirmed in writing
Refunds	4% of face value, paid by organizer

Example: ₱3,000 ticket

You receive	₱3,000
Service fee	≈ ₱140
Processing	≈ ₱94
Fan pays	≈ ₱3,234

Based on Ticketmelon's last published rates. We confirm yours with your account manager. Our fee is separate, and ticket money never passes through us.

UNDER THE HOOD

Load on 4G

Pages ship almost no code; images are compressed automatically.

Fans at once

Served from a global network with nearby servers in Singapore and Hong Kong. Nothing to crash at on-sale.

Card data on our side

Payments stay with Ticketmelon, so there's less risk and no PCI burden.

Accessible

Meets WCAG 2.2: readable contrast, keyboard friendly, reduced motion.

Stack: Astro website · Sanity editing system · Vercel hosting. These are modern, widely used tools, and you're not locked into any one provider.
